Bend and Mount Bachelor

Here, amazement is something you fall into, and it's waiting eagerly for anyone who's willing to make the trip to seize it. It's a place packed with possibility.

Whether you're dipping a paddle into the crystal-clear waters of the Deschutes River, sipping a frosted pint of your favorite craft brew, or plunging into the frosty unknown on a pair of snowshoes, Bend has a way of putting you at ease and in awe all at the same time.

Bend is world-famous for both its outdoor pursuits and pristine beauty. You can catch an art exhibit, dine at an award-winning restaurant, spoil yourself at one of our many spas, or trek the legendary Bend Ale Trail, the largest beer trail in the West. Bend makes a great spot for family-friendly fun as well, from cool snowshoe tours in some of Bend's snowy forests to watching raptors soar at the High Desert Museum. When you're all done with the fun, Bend's diverse lodging options are sure to recharge you. What will your Bend adventure be?

Central Oregon has a dry climate, plentiful sunshine and excellent weather conditions for sunny days on the mountain. Mt. Bachelor is the largest resort in the area – outstripping every other resort by 1,000 acres. It usually opens in November around Thanksgiving and runs through May, making it one of the longest ski seasons in the country. With already a fair amount of snow, the runs are bolstered by snowmaking.

Central Oregon, the town of Bend and Mt. Bachelor ski area are excellent options for summer recreation and bike riding in particular. Bachelor's mountain bike park is a popular option for village visitors after the ski area's winter closing date. Mt. Bachelor lodging options are based out of Bend and Sunriver, and many of the properties offer transportation via the Mt. Bachelor Shuttle.

WHERE IS MT. BACHELOR SKI RESORT LOCATED?

Mt. Bachelor is situated within the Deschutes National Forest in the scenic Cascade Range of central Oregon. Only 22 miles outside of Bend, Oregon, along the Century Divide Highway, Mt. Bachelor ski area offers a modern lift infrastructure and updated amenities within 40 miles of nearby Redmond Municipal Airport. Mt. Bachelor is approximately 115 miles south of Portland.

May We Suggest Checking Out One Of Many Breweries In Town

Fri Feb 17, 2023

BOOKING DETAILS

Welcome to Bend, Oregon, or Beer City, USA—which has more breweries per capita than anywhere in the state. Its trendy food scene and local ingredient focus can be partly attributed, but the pristine water source which flows down from the mountain top can be largely credited for every fine brew produced in the city. In the winter, folks retreat to breweries after a long day on the slopes. So many Breweries in Bend - 28+ options to explore. One of my favorites is the Monkless Brewery (no monks but great beer and food)

For the wine lovers you will not be disappointed, there is no shortage of wineries. And who doesn't enjoy a glass of carefully selected wine when on vacation or spending time with friends?

Here you will find quite a variety of wine tasting experiences, from the laid-back, friendly atmosphere of Naked Winery to the wide selection of over 600 labels at The Wine Shop and Beer Tasting Bar.

Some of the winery owners have even managed to grow their vines through painstaking trial and error, overcoming the drastic temperature fluctuations that are common in the high desert area.

Enjoy discounts at some of these great places.
